“Multi-Faceted Anti-Corruption Promotion” Project Awareness Raising Seminar

An awareness raising seminar in the framework of the EU funded “Multi-Faceted Anti-Corruption Promotion” project was held on 5 March, 2014 in Vanadzor.

“We are very glad to have the honor to present this grant to the Armenian Young lawyers Association and we hope that it will have a big influence in the fight against corruption”, said the Deputy Head of Cooperation of the Delegation of the European Union to Armenia, Mr Jose Maria Medina Navarro

In the words of the Project Manager Karen Zadoyan, the fight against corruption in Armenia has reached a rather important stage. “Today it is necessary to join the efforts of the authorities and civil society organizations in order to be able to fight the corruption and bring it to end,” Karen Zadoyan said.

The project aims to increase the role of Civil Society Organizations (CSOs) in promoting anti-corruption reforms and their implementation. In the framework of the project, CSOs and the media will build their capacity to engage in monitoring and watchdog activities. Small grants will be given for raising the effectiveness of public monitoring and implementation of appropriate monitoring, watchdog and investigative activities. A sustainable dialogue between CSOs and the Government will be developed with the participation of CSOs, to strengthen the anti-corruption institutional mechanisms.
