“Anti-Corruption Training” for CSOs and the Media of Lori and TavushMarzes

From 14-16 May 2014 at 10:00 in Vanadzor a three-day training took place for CSOs and the media of Lori and Tavushmarzes.

“The knowledge, experience and skills that the organizations and media will obtain as a result of these trainings, will enable them to apply for grant tenders not only in the framework of this project, but also after its completion and in case of winning the tender to implement their projects in general and to carry out investigations,” Karen Zadoyan, Armenian Young Lawyers Association, “Multi-Faceted Anti-Corruption Promotion” Project Manager said.

What is the role of CSOs and the media in the fight against corruption, which are the mechanisms and sources for getting information, how to implementing journalistic investigation. These and other topics were in the agenda of the training. During the training the NGOs and the media of Lori and Tavushmarzes participated.

The project aims to increase the role of the Civil Society Organizations (CSOs) in promoting anti-corruption reforms and their implementation. In the framework of the project the capacity of CSOs and the media to engage in monitoring and watchdog activities will be built. Anti-corruption training workshops will be organized throughout Armenia with the purpose of enabling CSOs and media organisations to better comprehend the issues related to anti-corruption and freedom of information. These activities aim at deepening the existing opportunities for carrying out anti-corruption activities. Small grants will be given for raising the effectiveness of public monitoring and implementation of appropriate monitoring, watchdog and investigative activities. A sustainable dialogue between CSOs and the Government will be developed with the participation of CSOs, to strengthen the anti-corruption institutional mechanisms.

The project is funded by the European Union and implemented by the “Armenian Young Lawyers Association” NGO in partnership with the “Freedom of Information Center” NGO. The project duration is 3 years (January 2014 – December 2016) and the budget is 650.000 EUR.

Armenian Young Lawyers Association (AYLA) was established in 1995 with a Mission to promote to the establishment of the rule of law, democracy and formation of the civil society in Armenia, where the people are aware of their rights and their rights are protected.

Freedom of Information Center (FOI) operates over 10 years. The Mission of FOI is to promote application of the RA Freedom of Information Law, contribute to the transparency and openness of the Armenian government system and to stimulate civic society's involvement in the governance system.
